ANNOUNCES ITS 35th ANNUAL UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH ESSAY COMPETITION
TWO $500 Prizes

RULES:
1. The entry must be an essay by a University of Delaware undergraduate presenting an account of a significant research or community engagement project for which the undergraduate is the primary investigator. The essay can be an excerpt from a longer text (e.g. senior thesis, research paper) or a report of work completed during the Summer Scholars Program. In any case, the essay submission must be adapted so that it can stand on its own.

2. Entries are expected to be about 8-10 pages.

3. The essay must communicate results in a way that is both understandable and interesting to a general educated audience. Full documentation is expected.

4. Each essay must have the written support of a faculty sponsor. The Faculty Sponsor’s Support Statement Form must accompany the essay when it is submitted.

6. An abstract of no more than 250 words must accompany the entry.

7. Winners must be available to make a brief presentation of their research at the Phi Kappa Phi Initiation Ceremony on Friday, May 6 at 5:00 p.m.

Requirements for Submission (essays are submitted “blind”):

2. One (1) copy: Identification Sheet, which includes: Name, email, phone, and essay title.

3. One (1) copy: Faculty Support Statement Form, which is in two (2) parts. This form is available online at the UD Chapter site (click here).

Submit all materials to: The Office of Undergraduate Research and Experiential Learning (180 S. College Avenue)

Submission deadline: Friday, April 15, 2016
Awards announced at CUES: Friday, April 29, 2016

MORE INFORMATION: Information, forms, and advisement are available on the UD Phi Kappa Phi website (www.udel.edu/pkp) and from the UREL, 180 South College Ave. (phone: 831-3188, email: serra@udel.edu).